

The American Institute of Architects
Continuing Education System
AIA/CES Registered Provider Program Summary

Provider: Hughes & Associates (L161)

Presenter: Yancey Hughes

Program #: GL 2020-2 AE

Program: Understanding Technologies for Architectural Elements

Length: 1 hour

Credits: 1 AIA CEU

HSW: Yes

SD Credit: Yes

GBCI: TBD Submitted

Description: This AIA addresses basic technologies that are used for Architectural Elements such as sun screening, fins, brise soleil, baguettes, louvers, canopies, pergolas, etc.

- Learning Objectives:
 - Define Architectural Elements?
 - Understand the typical current market “Architectural Elements” technologies
 - Understand core materials of each technology
 - Understand the sustainable features and Life Cycle benefits for each technology based on the following criteria:
 - Color Retention
 - Maintenance
 - Warranty
 - Budgetary Information
 - Selecting the best technology selection

Course Format: Instructor-led face-to-face

Target Audience: Architects, specifiers, owners and other design professionals in residential and commercial markets

Cost: Free